but ordinarily pays for itself as well.

No detailed technical knowledge is required for the work, all that is necessary is the exercise of common sense.

"It is obvious that the trees in any wood lot are not all of equal value. Some are taller, straighter, thriftier, and of species which yield more valuable wood than others. It is also obvious the straighter was also obvious the straighter was a straighter than the straighter was a straighter than the straighter than the straighter was a straighter than the straigh will be economy in fertilizers as well as in other lines. This is likely not only because of enforced economy as in all liffes, but because of a probable shortage and corresponding advance in price of fertilizer ingredients which have been customarily imported from Germany. Besides, it is well known that among the most serious "leaks" in the average farm is the waste of refuse that would, if properly handled, make good fertiliber.

Having this idea in view, the department of agriculture has just issued a statement legarding the value of the wood lot or woodpile as a fertilizer producing syency, and indicating how the supply of both fuel and fertilizer may be conserved by the improvement of the wood lot. It says:

"Every farmer needs fuel; every farmer needs fertilizer; and every farmer needs fertilizers and every farmer needs fertilizers.

"The wood lot is, perhaps, the only farm crop to which the farmer has not considered it necessary to devote any exit, and is first trees are one do in the wood in the wood in the farmer has not enabled and sprayed; his forest trees alone are left to look out for themselves. This is the more remarkalist ways be used to advantage for fuel. In living its

FIRST EFFECTS Full Power To Reorganize

GIVEN A PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT AND THE PRESENT BODY OF CHIEFTIANS BY PLAN OF AGUAS CALIENTES, ADOPTED AT NATIONAL CONVENTION

(By Assocated Press.)
EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 31.—Full pow-r to reorganize the civil affairs of statement issued here tonight by J. A. Kemp, of Wichita Falls, Texas, chairman of the executive committee of the Texas' Bankers' association, which has undertaken to help the Texas sit-uation.

Mexico is given a provisional president and the present body of chieftains by the plan of Aguas Calientes, adopted late yesterday by the National Convention at Aguas Calientes, Mexal convention at Aguas Callentes, Mexico. The new provisional president to be selected, the plan further stipulates, in the State committee's work are providing of a loan fund, the earnest by Texas merchants that at cents is a fair bottom price, agion for reduction of acreage 50 per t. next year and substitution of a crops for cotton.

The many provisional president to be selected, the plan further stipulates, shall be neither venustiano Carranza nor Francisco Villa.

Details of the protocol, adopted 112 to 17, reached here today in official Constitutionalist advices. In its concentration of authority in a president and the body of chieftains, who will act as a sort of congress, the plan differs from any previously adopted for rehabilitation of the Mexican government. It does not call for elections until after the arrangement of civil reforms.
